SUPER SECRETARIES

SKYLINE '80 is dedicated to four staff members whose service goes unnoticed by most students but whose tireless efforts play a vital role in the functioning of Waynesboro High School. These essential people are: Mrs. Mary Frances Burnett and Mrs. Polly Hawpe, main office secretaries; Mrs. Polly Broyles, guidance secretary; and Mrs. Jane Bishop, attendance officer. The duties performed by these tenacious ladies are sometimes tedious, sometimes frustrating, and always endless. Therefore, as a token of appreciation for their many years of dedicated service, the Skyline Yearbook Staff offers this recognition and its sincerest thanks to these four super secretaries on behalf of the administration, faculty, and student body.

Mrs. Jane Bishop

Freedom within the walls.
Laughing and talking.
Wiping away a tear.
Friends.
All alone.
A four-minute class change.
The bell.
A half-hour lunch break.
Nighttime and weekends.
The void of books and papers.
Anything or everything.
Going out and making it.
Testing life.

By nothing do men show their characters more than by the things they laugh at.

Long you live and high you fly and smiles you'll give and tears you'll cry and all you touch and all you see is all your life will ever be . . .

High on this mountain
The clouds down below
I'm feeling so strong and alive
From this rocky perch
I'll continue to search
For the wind
And the snow
And the sky
I want a lover
I want some friends
And I want to live in the sun
And I want to do all the things that I never have done.

Once in a vision
I came on some woods
And stood at a fork in the road
My choices were clear
Yet I froze with the fear
Of not knowing which way to go
One road was simple
Acceptance of life
The other road offered sweet peace
When I made my decision
My vision became my release.

A TIME FOR US

There are a vast number of tangents to the daily life of Waynesboro High School. You pass by the same persons and places everyday, but what really is noticed and remembered? What did you discover and explore while you were here and what did you miss?

We all have a face that we hide away forever and we take them out and show ourselves when everyone has gone.

I know that there's a reason why
I need to be alone,
I need to find a silent place that
I can call my own.

They say I'm crazy,
But I have a good time,
Life's been good to me so far . . .

I know that we will never change 'cause we've been friends through rain or shine for such a long, long time.

There are some who can still remember all the things that we used to do. Oh, I can still see the smiling faces when the times were so good. All in the old familiar places. I'd go back if I could.

I get by with a little help from my friends.

Don't know where I'm going, but I'm on my way ...

SENIORS

TIME LINE, 1979-80

Members of the Class of 1980 should not find it difficult to remember the major political and social events that occurred during their senior year, for few other years have been filled with events of such magnitude. Occupying center stage was the American hostage crisis in Iran and the Soviet Union's invasion of Afghanistan. While we gained some satisfaction when the U.S. Hockey Team defeated the Russian squad in the Winter Olympics and when we boycotted the Summer Games in Moscow, all efforts to solve the Iranian problem, including the ill-fated rescue mission, met with failure. At the end of the school year, Mt. St. Helens erupted, but the "hot air" from the long, drawn-out Presidential primary season abated.

All Americans mourned the loss of John "Duke" Wayne in the summer of '79, but two new stars, film's Bo Derek and college basketball's Ralph Sampson, attracted much attention. Pittsburgh's Pirates and Steelers dominated pro sports, and "The Empire Strikes Back" gave signs of doing the same to the movie industry. At year's end, thousands of Cuban refugees flocked to our shores to escape political oppression, to seek the good life, and to share in the American dream.

EIGHTY'S ALIVE

Faculty sponsor Miss Janet Knicely and class president Clint Kiser collaborated with members of the Senior Committee to produce an eventful and rewarding year. They planned and organized fundraising activities such as selling super hero pens, novelty jewelry, diploma covers, and various articles in a flea market. Also, the committee was responsible for operating the concession stand at basketball games, choosing the senior play, and determining the senior trip. Following past tradition, the class voted on baccalaureate and graduation speakers and prepared for senior Finals, one of the most memorable occasions of the year.

TRACY-2000

REFLECTIONS

Remember . . . That early August morning in 1977 when we walked into Waynesboro High School to begin our three year journey through high school. The crowded halls filled with seemingly intimidating people that reminded us we were "just" sophomores.

The first home football game when we rose to our feet to show our sophomore spirit, the accomplished feeling of winning the coveted spirit stick.

The feeling of watching emptiness fill the school as our older classmates, whom we had grown to love, left it.

Remember . . . The first day of our junior year when we walked into the school feeling quite at home and secure in the midst of old and new faces. How we shared our hopes and dreams of a future not yet determined, but somehow within our immediate reach.

All those long, hard practices, Ladies of Eighty?! Oh, how we worked and oh, how we won!!!!

The day we ordered our cherished class rings, somewhat dreading the long wait ahead of us.

The togetherness we felt as we sang "Those Were the Days" at the end of our JV Show and thought about the days to come when we'd all go our separate ways fulfilling our destinies.

That early Saturday morning when we struggled through our first experiences with SAT's.

How we worked at planning and decorating for Prom 1979, "Over the Rainbow," which brought the blue sky and rainbow into the WHS gym.

And then . . . We were seniors, always longing for "something better" and filled with the growing desire for independence.

Remember . . . That disease commonly called "senioritis" that suddenly infected us when everything hit us at once — novels to be read, term papers to be done, forty tests all on one day, all of which continued in a seemingly unending cycle.

All of our problems of growing up, never normal or common, that kept us apart but, somehow, eventually brought us closer together. The hassle of filling out college applications with all those redundant questions like "Why are you applying to this school?" and "Are you applying anywhere else?"

Then the day we received those special envelopes — both thick and thin — which held the keys to our futures — for better or for worse. The feeling of relief we felt when finally we had decided which college to which we would dedicate the next four years of our lives. How quickly each day passed, fleeting by us before we could even make the day worthwhile.

And suddenly As the last diploma exchanges hands
As the last cap is joyfully tossed into the air
As the last sigh of relief is heard
And the last tear is shed,

We remember It is over.

We realize It has only just begun.

JUNIORS

CLASS OF 1981

According to tradition, the junior year is the most active year in senior high school and this certainly appeared to be true for the Class of '81. Major activities that the class carried out were the annual Junior Variety Show and the Junior-Senior Prom. In addition, the juniors participated in the powderpuff football game. These events should prove to be good experiences in preparation for the senior year.

RECOVERY

Although the Junior Class lost the powder-puff football game to the Seniors, they never lost their high spirits. After a few days of recovery, the Juniors bounced back displaying their pride and sense of humor. This spirit helped to carry the class through the remainder of the year.

CLASS RINGS

One of the biggest events in high school life is receiving class rings which are acquired during the junior year. From the day when rings are ordered, most juniors wait in great anticipation until that momentous day when they arrive. Members of the Class of '81 were no exception to this thrilling tradition this year.

"GOOD TIMES"

The annual Junior Variety Show was considered by many students to be the most difficult task facing the junior class — with the exception of term papers. There were times during the months of preparation that the show's director T.C. Bradley and producer Lisa Shields probably felt like giving up, but the show went on. Success was achieved thanks to the hard work of many people, including class sponsors Mrs. Audra Brodowicz and Mrs. Sally Maeder. In the end, members of the Class of '81 felt, as classes before them, that their J.V. Show was the best ever.

"MIDNIGHT MAGIC"

Since the Class of '81 had a successful Junior Variety Show, they were able to raise enough money to provide a very special Junior-Senior Prom. On Prom night, couples were entertained by the band "Wave" while dancing under the moon and stars. No doubt that everyone in attendance caught a little "Midnight Magic."

JUNIORS SURPRISE SENIORS

This year, for the first time at Waynesboro High School, competition in the form of a "Class Night" took place between the seniors, juniors, and sophomores. In somewhat of a surprise to the seniors, the juniors prevailed in the overall competition even though the margin of victory was a mere half-point. The juniors look forward to next year's event, when, as seniors, they should be favored to win again.

SOPHOMORES

THE CLASS OF '82

This year members of the Sophomore Class Council met each month to confer with each other and discuss issues concerning their class. Under the leadership of class president Marian Morris, the representatives had an active and challenging year. Although no major projects were planned or carried out, the experience that these students gained will prove profitable in future years.

SOPHOMORES EXCEL ON CLASS NIGHT

In the first annual WHS Class Night, members of the Class of '81 finished last but trailed the "mighty" second-place seniors by a mere one-half point. The sophomores got off to a good start and were very competitive in the early events. They placed first in both the volleyball game and the basketball relay but declined in the remaining events. With a good overall effort, though, class members look forward to a renewal of the competition next year.

CLASSES

Being in their first year at Waynesboro High, one of the important initial encounters of the sophomores is with the school's curriculum. A student can choose from four programs — academic, vocational, business and general. No matter which program members of the Class of '81 chose, most were seen lugging home a stack of books for their daily and long-range assignments. By year's end, the sophomores felt very good about the accomplishments they had made.

SPORTS

One of the best ways to get involved in student life at WHS is to participate in school athletics. With a wide variety of sports to choose from, the sophomores were active participants this year, and many showed excellent ability. The sophomore athletes are looking forward to improving their skills in the coming years.

SPARE TIME

This year's busy activities left the sophomores with little spare time. After class, they could be found around the school supporting athletic events or just hanging around. Talking with friends in the hall and catching up with the latest gossip were also some of their favorite pastimes.

FAREWELL TO FITNESS

"The end is in sight" or so the sophomores had been told. During one period of each day, members of the sophomore class could be found engaging in another aspect of their education, Phys. Ed. Little homework was required of the course, but complaints were heard just as often here as in other classes. Although some fond memories were made, most sophomores were glad to say good-bye to gym suits, laps around the gym, and exhausting exercises.

FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY LEAD THE WAY

With the support and guidance of the administration and teaching staff, the students of Waynesboro High School completed another successful year — one filled with many accomplishments. While the efforts of the school's educators sometimes goes unnoticed and unrewarded, most students realize that without the outstanding work of the principals, counselors, and classroom teachers, WHS would not be much of a school. With this in mind, the student body, especially the Class of 1980, sincerely thanks the educators of Waynesboro High School for a job well done.

CHEERLEADERS ADD MORE SPIRIT

For the 1979-80 sports season at Waynesboro High School, the Varsity Cheerleaders expanded from eight to twelve members, thus "adding more spirit" to the school. To raise money for new uniforms required by expansion, the girls held a car wash and a bake sale over the summer. Along with the J.V. Cheerleaders, the varsity squad began practice in August in preparation for the coming season. Throughout the year, both squads provided plenty of spirit in leading WHS fans to support the Little Giants.

FOOTBALL GIANTS

Although the Waynesboro High School Varsity Football Team's records of 3-2-1 in the district and 5-4-1 overall were down from last year, the Little Giants nonetheless provided their fans with some super exciting moments during the 1979 season. Unbelievably, the team came back from a 25-6 deficit late in the third quarter to beat Orange 31-25, marking the first home loss for Orange in four years. Next came the famous "Noah's Ark" game when Waynesboro battled perennial state power Harrisonburg to a 0-0 tie in a heavy downpour. Later in the season, the Little Giants shutout Martinsville 6-0 which was the first time this team had been blanked at home in ten years. Leading the WHS squad this year were John Blackwell, All-State for the second year; Jeff Johnson, a 1,000 yard season ground-gainer who led the Valley District in both rushing and scoring; All-District linebacker Ricky Brown; and second-team All-District players, Chuck Pierce, Jeff Ritenour, and Wendall Johnson.

CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPS

The Little Giant Cross Country Team compiled a perfect 9-0 record in dual/tri meets this season and won the Eastern Mennonite Invitational. The climax of the season was a repeat performance as Valley District Champions. The WHS harriers went on to capture a solid fourth place in Region II competition, but due to injuries and bad weather, the squad placed a somewhat disappointing tenth in the State Meet. The Little Giants were led this year by seniors Clint Kiser and Troy Maeder, juniors Jim Eckenrode and David Campbell, and sophomores John Lewis and Glen Aylor. With several top runners returning next year, the team is looking forward to a third consecutive district title.

GREAT LADY GIANTS

The 1979 Lady Giants Varsity Basketball Team concluded one of their most successful seasons ever, posting records of 17-5 overall and 11-1 in the Valley District — the latter clinching the regular season championship. High scorer Gwen Bergey, top rebounder Les Jane Brooks, and all-around players Bonnie Owens, Gayle Shuler, and Rosemary Kidd led the team to some exciting moments, especially the home victories over league powers Harrisonburg and Turner Ashby. The Junior Varsity did not meet with as much success, but they did gain much experience and provided their fans with some thrilling play, such as the narrow victory over R.E. Lee.

VOLLEYBALL ENTERS

The first interscholastic volleyball teams ever at Waynesboro High School made their appearance this year in the form of girls varsity and junior varsity squads. All things considered, the girls did very well as the varsity posted a record of 5-4 in district competition and 5-5 overall, while the J.V.'s were 3-6 and 3-7 respectively. Leading the varsity were Gwen Bergey, Karen Crawley, and Stephanie Tyson. Outstanding J.V. performers were Terry Stinespring, Alycia Quick, Kim Perry, and Beth Knicely.

BASKETBALL EXCELLENCE

With regular season records of 16-5 overall and 9-3 in the Valley District, the 1979-80 Little Giant Varsity Basketball Team enjoyed the best year for a WHS hoop squad during the past five years. Highlights of the season included a 100-67 romp over Stuarts Draft and victories over tough Harrisonburg and Lee High, marking the first time in four years that Waynesboro had defeated either of these teams. Individual highpoints during the year came when Andrew Ratliff broke the 1,000 point barrier for career scoring and later in the season when Ratliff set a new school career scoring record, breaking a mark that had stood for over twenty years. Ratliff also led the district in scoring average and was joined by Timmy Teachey on the All-District first team. Other leading contributors for the Little G's were top rebounder Dee Novak and all-around player Sidney Diggs. Waynesboro's successful season came to an abrupt halt as they were upset by Broadway in the opening round of the Valley District Tournament, thus ending the campaign with a final record of 16-6.

J.V.'S ARE GIANTS

Year in and year out, the WHS Junior Varsity Basketball Team turns in a superb season. The 1979-80 squad even improved upon this tradition as they wound up 11-1 in the Valley District and 17-1 against all competition. This was the best J.V. record at Waynesboro since the early 1960's. Leading the team this year were: Lee Montgomery — scoring; Alphonso Woodson — rebounding; and Mark Teachey — assists. Good efforts were also provided by Mike Brodowicz and Eric Woods. As this talent moves up to the varsity next year, Waynesboro should encounter great basketball for years to come.

WRESTLING THE FUTURE

While the Little Giant Varsity Wrestling Team had a disappointing season (1-3 in district and 3-9 overall), the junior varsity grapplers posted the best record ever (7-3) for a WHS J.V. team. Although the varsity did not do well as a team, they did have some remarkable individuals. Andy Talbert and Jon Schriver were undefeated during the regular season, placed first in the Valley District Tournament and third in Region II, and went on to finish in the top ten in state competition. Stuart Talbert, Randy Tallent, and Mark Bowman also had good years for the varsity. Leading the way for the J.V.'s were Chuck Cusson and Zo Tipton. With these and other wrestlers from the outstanding J.V. squad joining the eleven returning varsity members, prospects for the future look very promising.

INDOOR TRACK TEAM IS SUPER

The WHS Indoor Track Team had a sensational season in 1980. According to Coach Billy League, the squad was an unusually group of hard workers who started as a good team and finished an excellent one. Their record certainly bears this out as the Little Giants went undefeated during the regular season, won the Valley District and Region II Meets, and finished a very strong second in the State Meet. The most outstanding athlete on the team was John Blackwell who broke the school record for the indoor shot put and came in first place in district, regional, and state competition. Other standouts this year included Kevin Whitesell in the hurdles, Jeff Howard in the sprints, and Troy Maeder in the distance runs. Also, the mile relay team composed of Whitesell, Howard, Ricky Morris and Mike Cook set a school record in the indoor mile relay and placed first in the State Meet.

TRACK TEAM IS TOPS

The 1980 Little Giant Outdoor Track Team completed their fourth undefeated season in a row and won the Valley District Meet. The Little G's went on to place third in Region II and second in the State. Also, during the year the squad won the prestigious Rotary Relays in Bridgewater and the Fluvanna Invitational. The backbone of the team this year was an excellent group of graduating seniors who never lost a meet in regular season competition during their varsity careers. Among the many outstanding individuals were "all-everything" John Blackwell, Kevin Whitesell, Jeff Howard, Billy Sayre, and Darrell Jones. Blackwell set new school records in the shot and discus and won both of these events in district, region, and state competition. Sayre placed third in the pole vault in the State Meet, Jones won the Region II 200-yard dash, Whitesell won the intermediate and high hurdles in the District Meet and set a new school record in the high hurdles, while Howard won the District 100-yard dash and tied the school record in the 100.

GIRLS ARE STILL GREAT

Although the Lady Giant Tennis Team had an outstanding season with marks of 8-2 in the Valley District and 10-2 overall, the girls were somewhat disappointed as Harrisonburg broke WHS's five year reign at the top. When the Lady Streaks defeated Waynesboro, it marked the first time in six seasons that the WHS girls had lost a match in district competition. While Waynesboro was short-circuited in their quest for six consecutive district and regional titles and a fifth straight state crown, the team certainly had every right to be proud of their accomplishments. In individual efforts this year, Stephanie Tyson and Carrie Austin won the district doubles title while Austin won the district and regional singles crown and placed third in the state.

LEADING PLAYERS — BOTTOM TO TOP: Carrie Austin, Stephanie Tyson, Beth Knicely, Bonnie Flora, and Coach Pat Austin.

Coach C.J. DeWitt and three of his top players — Robby Culbreth, Doug Powell, and Tracy Roberts.

MEN'S TEAM ON THE UPSWING

The WHS Men's Tennis Team completed the 1980 season with records of 4-6 in the Valley District and 7-8 overall. The major highlight came when Waynesboro defeated the Black Knights of Charlottesville High in what was certainly the Little Giants' top effort of the year. Leading the WHS racketman this year were Tracy Roberts, Doug Powell, and Robby Culbreth. Simeon Hahn, Andy Talbert, and Paul Perkins also had good seasons and contributed much to the team effort. With nine returnees, first-year coach C.J. DeWitt expects his young but experienced squad to do much better next year.

GOLF TEAM IS ON COURSE

The 1980 Little Giant Golf Team got off to a slow start this year, but they came on strong at the end of the season and finished second in the Valley District Meet behind eventual state champ Lee High. The WHS links squad then went on to surprise some doubters as they placed third in Region II competition. Leading performers this year were Steve Rogers who was a medalist in the Regional Tournament, Troy Maeder, David Crum, and super soph Mark Teachey who amazingly won second place in the State Double-A Tournament. With Teachey and several other good young golfers to build around, Coach Ron Hennis is eagerly anticipating the 1981 season.

ENTHUSIASM PLUS

The 1980 Girl's Track Team was characterized by Coach Sue Elmore as the most enthusiastic and optimistic team she has ever worked with. The squad posted a 2-4 record in dual meets but placed second out of eight schools at the Fluvanna Invitational. Standouts were Bonnie Owens, Patti Hanula, Michelle Davis, Sandy Hufford, and Penny Quick.

SUPER SOFTBALL

After a rebuilding season last year, the WHS Girl's Softball Team bounced back in 1980 and captured the Valley District Championship. The Lady Giants posted an excellent record of 8-2 in district competition and 11-4 overall. However, the girls were stopped in their bid for the State Title as they lost to defending state champ Varina in the Region II playoffs. Highlights of the year included a school record 11-game winning streak, beating Albemarle for the first time in three years, and defeating district power Turner Ashby. Standout performers were seniors Lesjane Brooks, Gwen Bergey, Rosemary Kidd, Dawn Terrell, and Gayle Shuler.

Top players Gwen Bergey and Lesjane Brooks and Coach George Buzzard.

BASEBALL SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

The 1980 WHS Baseball Team improved upon last year by finishing the season with 7-5 district and 11-9 overall records. The district mark was good enough for a third place finish behind league powers Turner Ashby and Western Albemarle. The high point of the year was a four-game win streak at the end of the season which culminated in a rousing 14-0 drubbing of district champ Turner Ashby, a traditional Waynesboro baseball rival. In this game, everyone put forth a superior effort, especially Little Giant hurler Larry Wade who tossed a one-hitter at the Knight batsmen. Leading players for WHS throughout the season were offensive and defensive standouts Scotty Snead and Ricky Brown. Selected for All-District honors were Brown and first-year player Tim Teachey. Coach Dick Moyer praised the entire team for the good efforts which led to a winning season.

SPORTS 1979-80

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

1979-80 — TRADITION AND CHANGE ...

ACTIVE ATHLETES

In its second year at Waynesboro High School, the Active Athletes Club continued to strive to promote girl's athletics. Membership in the club is open to any student, male or female, with an interest in advancing the girl's sports program at the school. A major fund-raising activity to boost the club's efforts was the sponsorship of the "Redheads" basketball game featuring an all-girl professional team versus a squad of area male coaches. Proceeds from this event were used to purchase warm-up suits for future girl's sports. In addition to all of the work this year, the Active Athletes took their second annual fun trip to King's Dominion.

ART GUILD

The Art Guild, organized in 1975, has grown over the years to one of the largest and most active clubs at Waynesboro High School. Members meet after school and on weekends to work on a wide variety of projects. Activities this year included serving as student hostesses at the City's Fall Foliage Festival, making signs and posters for school and civic groups, working as lab assistants in the Art Department, planting and weeding the art patio, designing program covers, and helping with exhibits. Guild members have also acted as resource teachers in the city's elementary art program. To increase their awareness of the art world, members bring in local artists to display and discuss their work, and they take trips to museums, lectures, and area art shows.

As a system of reward, the Art Guild maintains a chart to record individual member participation in the various activities. When a Guild member has taken part in ten activities, he or she received a "gold and purple patch" with the Art Guild emblem on it. These "patch holders" and all of the other Guild members owe a great deal of thanks to the two people who make it all possible — faculty sponsors Mrs. Bunnie Austin and Miss Lynn Hilton.

Events in which the Band took part included the Virginia State Fair in Richmond, the James Madison University Homecoming Parade, the Waynesboro Fire Prevention Parade, and both the Staunton and Waynesboro Christmas Parades. The music makers from WHS also served as a pep band during state basketball competition in Charlottesville. At the school, the Band performed their traditional halftime shows during football season, added some music to home basketball games, and gave their usual annual concerts. One of the major highlights of the year was serving as host for Regional Band competition.

The students of WHS would like to thank band director Mr. Gary Cable and wish him well as he moves on to a new job next year. His ideas and tireless efforts are deeply appreciated by many people.

BETA CLUB

The National Beta Club, an honors organization, sets the minimum standard for academic excellence in most high schools throughout the nation. At Waynesboro High School, its members must maintain a 3.2 average as sophomores and a 3.0 as juniors and seniors. The only major activity of the WHS chapter this year was the sponsorship of the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance. Many club members spent a great deal of time and effort preparing for and cleaning up after the dance so that all students could enjoy it. At the end of the school year, new Beta Club members were inducted during a special school assembly so that the entire student body could recognize the efforts of those who worked hard for academic achievement.

CONCERT CHOIR

Although the multi-talented Waynesboro High School Choir has achieved a reputation for excellence over the years, the 1979-80 group did not sit back and rest on past laurels. Instead, this year's choir members worked very hard to maintain the tradition of outstanding vocal achievement. Twenty-four choristers were chosen for Regionals, and once again Waynesboro had ten of their number selected for the "All-Virginia Chorus" which represented exactly one-half of the entire district's quota. Locally, the Concert Choir performed several exciting shows, and on the road they continued representing the city as Waynesboro's "Singing Ambassadors." Tradition lives on!

CHESS CLUB

The mental challenge of chess has long been a favorite pastime for those who enjoy games of thought and intense concentration. Waynesboro High School students are no exception. In only the second year of existence at WHS, the Chess Club provides its members with an opportunity for some interesting "mind games". Despite the demanding mental competition of chess, all club members agree that it is an intriguing diversion to the many pressures of high school life.

DEBATE TEAM

"Should the United States significantly change its foreign trade policies?" This was the resolution for the 1979-80 Waynesboro High School Debate Team, a young and dedicated group prepared by faculty sponsor Mrs. Harriet Aylor. Although both the affirmative and negative teams faced some very tough opponents during the year, it is hoped that the experiences gained against this stiff competition will prove beneficial in building for future WHS debate success.

DECA

Distributive Education, founded in Waynesboro, and the Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA) have a common goal in striving for a better education along with on-the-job training. Under the leadership of faculty sponsor Mrs. Evelyn Kiser, the WHS Chapter was provided with opportunities for this practical form of education. As in the past, this year's club members ran the concession stands at home football games and participated in regional and state DECA meetings, competitive events, and other activities to increase their business skills.

FHA

Working through various classes in the Home Economics Department, the Future Homemakers of America placed their emphasis on child care again this year by helping with the Federal Title I preschool program. Every member of the home economics classes was involved in FHA as they carried out day-to-day and special activities for the preschoolers. Besides Halloween, Christmas, and Valentine's Day parties, and an Easter egg hunt, field trips were taken to Pioneer Village, Heston's Farm, and Ridgeview Park. FHA members and the preschool children both benefited from these activities as they learned a lot from each other.

In addition, the group gave a dinner for their sponsoring Kiwanis Club, attended a Key Club convention in Virginia Beach, and took part in various social activities such as bowling and pizza parties.

KEYETTES

The model qualities of any Keyette member are dedication, leadership, and participation. In demonstrating these qualities this year, the WHS Chapter initiated many projects. As in past years, Keyettes made and sold candy apples at home football games. A new endeavor this year was assisting in fund-raising for cystic fibrosis. Social gatherings included the annual initiation of new members and a Keyette "Roast" of senior members. Some members were also sent to the National Keyette Convention held in Washington, D.C.

LATIN CLUB

For those students who are interested in finding out more about the culture associated with the language on which many other languages are based, Waynesboro High School provides the Latin Club. Its purpose is to stimulate interest in ancient history and civilization, and many of the club's activities are centered around ancient Roman life. This year, members attended the State Junior Classical League Convention in Roanoke during which they participated in various academic and artistic events. The club also sold T-shirts and planned a Roman banquet at the end of the school year.

The Lettermen's Club, an organization for letter winners in varsity sports, performed many services for Waynesboro High School this year. The club sponsored the much-looked-forward-to and fulfilled event, the Annual Powder-puff Football Game between all-girl teams from the junior and senior classes. Proceeds from this event helped pay for trophies given at the various sports awards socials. The club also purchased letter sweaters and jackets, and members enjoyed an outing to see a professional football game in Baltimore.

LIBRARY COUNCIL

The primary goal of the Library Council is to promote the use of the school's library and to learn the skills that go into its operation. Although the group is a hard-working one, they forthrightly admit that what they do is fun. Some of their duties include organizing magazines and newspapers, shelving books, signing student library passes, and working at the circulation desk. In addition to aiding students and the librarians, the club also enjoyed some parties and social gatherings this year.

OFFICERS: Wanda Braden, secretary-treasurer; Tara Reynolds, president; Jeff Moore, vice-president.

WHS TEAM — JMU MATH CONTEST: June Carroll, Troy Maeder, Tom Varner, Jeff Moore.

MATH TEAMS

Mathematics students of Waynesboro High School greatly distinguished themselves and the school's Math Department with their outstanding participation and achievement in several math contests during the school year. In the Sixth Annual Math Contest sponsored by James Madison University, a WHS team finished fifth out of the twenty-seven schools that competed. In the First Annual Virginia Council of Teachers of Mathematics Contest, Waynesboro students took first place in every level of competition. Another WHS team placed fourteenth out of fifty-four schools in statewide competition sponsored by the Virginia Mathematics League as well as placing first in their region. Finally, in contests conducted by the Mathematics Association of America, WHS students garnered a first and second place while two students tied for third.

THIRD ROW: Mark Higdon, Troy Maeder, Jimmy Quada.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

While it takes academic excellence and a lot of hard work to be selected as a member of the National Honor Society, the group is more than just an honors club. They aid the senior class and the school by organizing and conducting the yearly poll for senior superlatives and by preparing the much-anticipated senior wills. The highlight of the year, however, is always the pomp and circumstance of the annual Awards Assembly where NHS members are recognized before the student body and new members are inducted into the society. Since this assembly is always at the end of the school year, it provides a fitting conclusion to one of the aims of education — the pursuit of knowledge.

OFFICERS: June Carroll, president; Patti Hanula, vice-president; Mary Beth Kovarik, secretary; Troy Maeder, treasurer.

NEWSPAPER STAFF

In only its second year of operation, the Waynesboro High Times kept the students, teachers, and members of the community informed of school life and events in a truly responsible and efficient manner. A product of the WHS journalism class under the direction of Mr. Thomas Taylor, the newspaper was made possible by the many hours of hard work by the students conducting interviews and opinion polls and gathering general news for their weekly edition. All of the effort paid off, however, as the newspaper was eagerly anticipated by all.

ONE-ACT PLAY "ANTIC AMERICA"

Waynesboro High School's entry in the Valley Theater Festival this year was an original play written and directed by faculty sponsor Mr. Duane Hahn. The play traced American humor from the beginning of the country's history up to modern day. Five reader/actors did narrative work by telling about the development of humor and pointed to specific humorists and their works by sometimes becoming that humorist. Interspersed throughout the narratives were short excerpts from works of three great American humorists — Mark Twain's "Diary of Adam and Eve," James Thurber's "Thieve's Carnival," and Erma Bombeck's "If Life Is A Bowl Of Cherries What Am I Doing In The Pits?" Enthusiasm and energy paced the cast and a hard working crew to a highly successful and fun-for-all entertainment.

PEP CLUB

Inspired by the ingenuity of its officers, the Pep Club had many things to offer the spirited classes of Waynesboro High School this year. In addition to their usual duties of supporting the athletic teams with pep rallies and cheers, the club organized a fund-raising committee to help pay for the uniforms of the new girl's volleyball team. Club members also helped to purchase a new trophy showcase for the school, sold links for a spirit chain for each of the classes, and prepared food for the cross country and football teams and for the athletic department's sports banquets. Highlighting a very active year, the Pep Club sponsored what is hoped to be an annual event, "Class Night", to determine the most spirited class at WHS — won this year by the juniors over some very tough competition.

SCIENCE CLUB

Placing its emphasis on promoting an interest in the study of science, the WHS Science Club had a very active and challenging year. Trips were made to the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C. and to the planetarium at James Madison University. On three different occasions, guest speakers from the field of science made presentations to the club. Following past tradition, members assisted with several dog shows as a fund-raising activity. At the end of the year, the club took a social trip to Busch Gardens, partly as a reward for all of their work. The final activity of the Science Club was the awarding of a scholarship to a member who would be pursuing a career in science, and this year's winner was Mary Beth Kovarik.

SODA

This year the Student Organization for Developing Attitudes (SODA) continued its efforts to establish better communication between elementary and high school students. Using a specially-trained group of senior high volunteers, SODA informed elementary students about high school life and sought to promote self-awareness and a positive self-image within the children. SODA members also provided straight answers to the many questions asked by the younger students. In addition to visiting in the elementary schools, SODA students brought several of their "kids" to WHS for a visit. Members also had some social activities this year such as a covered-dish supper in the winter and a picnic in the spring.

SPANISH CLUB

To be a member of the WHS Spanish Club, a student must be enrolled in any level of Spanish offered at the school. The purpose of the club is to help these students to gain experiences in Spanish culture. In carrying this goal out, many activities were conducted this year such as trips to restaurants specializing in Mexican food, after school tasting parties, and meetings with guest speakers using Spanish dialogue. Other events included special fiestas with traditional food and games with the pinata. All in all, it was a very interesting year for the Spanish Club.

STUDENT-FACULTY ADVISORY BOARD

The Student-Faculty Advisory Board exists as a formal channel of communication between the students and the educators at Waynesboro High School. Membership on the board consists of faculty members who are appointed by the principal and the three highest-ranking officers of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. The president of the senior class serves a dual function as he or she also presides over the Student-Faculty Board. One of the important accomplishments of the group this year was the establishment of the Youth Advisory Committee (YAC) formed to give the student body input into the school's lunch program.

Student Faculty Board President — Clint Kiser.

THESPIAN SOCIETY

The WHS Chapter of the International Thespian Society, an honors drama group, helped sponsor many events this year including the One-Act Play and Spring Cabaret. In conjunction with the Theater Wagon and the Waynesboro Players, Waynesboro Thespians helped stage the "Theater Festival" which included original plays by WHS's Duane Hahn and by a member of the visiting Louisiana Players. These and other such activities gave the members of the Thespian Society some great experiences in drama.

YOUTH ADVISORY COUNCIL

In its first year at Waynesboro High School, the Youth Advisory Council had as its purpose the bettering of communication between the cafeteria staff and the students and faculty. A major goal of the Council was to enable students to have greater input into the school's food service program and to familiarize them with its operation. Membership in the Council consisted of representatives from the cafeteria staff, faculty, and the senior, junior, and sophomore classes. It is hoped that in the coming years, this organization will make even greater strides toward better understanding and participation in the school lunch program.

SKYLINE YEARBOOK STAFF

Because of the dedication and hard work by several staff members, the 1980 Skyline Yearbook was completed in the nick of time in June, and material for the final deadline was rushed off to Hunter Publishing Company to be printed over the summer. No one else waited so eagerly for the yearbooks to arrive in August as did those students who had given so much of their time, effort, and patience. A countless number of sales slips, practice layouts, final layouts, pictures, photo envelopes, and copy sheets were toiled over for a seemingly endless number of hours. Yet, little thanks was ever heard from the many people who make up Waynesboro High School. Although no trophies were given or awards won, the hard-working few of the Skyline '80 Yearbook Staff sincerely hoped that everyone enjoyed the fruits of their labor.

Amanda Schlick, editor and Mr. Andrew Shifflett, advisor.
